

The Telephone Consumer Protection Act has given me back the freedom of proper use of my telephone. I do not have meals interrupted by rude telemarketers,,,in many cases which cannot even speak understandable English. I DO NOT wish this act to be tampered with in any way, except to make it stronger, if possible. Do your job,,,and do it RIGHT, LISTEN to your public.LEAVE THIS ACT INTACT.